Always inspiring to read and learn more in-depth about a topic of the faith. No pun intended. It is easy to read, yet illuminates the topic beautifully with many examples from scripture. I love it. It rounds out the trilogy started by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI after he wrote "God is Love" and "Saved in Hope". "The Light of Faith" helps to put things into perspective for us and remind us that faith is not just a buzz word. It means a real relationship with our Heavenly Father based on trusting the promises He has made to us. And the book reviews all of the times that He has come through on the promises He made and now it is our responsibility act accordingly. Bravo!

This first encyclical of Pope Francis is a sequel to Pope Benedict XVI's encyclicals on love and hope. Written mostly by Benedict with a few additional thoughts from Francis, according to the introduction, it is a beautiful meditation on the meaning of Christian faith in the world today. If you love Pope Francis and Pope Benedict XVI, you'll enjoy this unique collaboration between the two of them, started before Benedict's resignation. This slender paperback from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) with glossy cover is quite readable, with bright and large text. The text is more readable than the Paulist Press edition of this same work.

This Pope is so eloquent. What a pleasure to read.

Pope Francis finished the third book on the 3 theological virtues, Faith, Hope and Love, begun by Pope Benedict during his tenure as Pope. Pope Francis did a superb job relating the importance of Faith to everyday living. His style is very readable and engaging.

glad I purchased this and have added it to my library of important books about Pope Francis a man who is changing attitudes in the world Arrive safe, sound, and intact. Thanks!

Once again Pope Francis is so wonderful in spreading the love of Christ in a way that we can understand. Very good reading.

You just have to love Pope Francis. Faith is what we all need to see beyond our problems and difficulties.
