Customer Reviews

The 1:15000 scale makes for small lettering for my eyes. I understand that it needs to be that size to cover such a large city, and this map may be good for someone with a car who intends to go outside the main tourist areas. However, I would prefer a 1:11000 map with the same overall dimensions (like the Copenhagen map) for planning my trip to the tourist areas. The highway numbers are hard to read, should be much larger, and should be a bright color to stand out better. The lamination is great especially in rain, but I think I'll navigate my trip on my cell phone with online GPS.

All words of sites are in Swedish, so if looking for something like "City Hall", it can be difficult. As far as street names, it's pretty complete. We are planning a trip, but haven't gone yet, and are having difficulty locating sites on the map.

Satisfying!

A really good map, fits in a backpack.
