Sailing Down Grenada Way (Bold Shorts Book 1)

Synopsis

Bold Shorts is a book series of Caribbean tales from aboard sailing vessel Boldly Go. These diverse tales stretch from Puerto Rico in the north, south to Trinidad and west to Venezuela. They move the reader to balmy beaches, athletic forays in turbulent waters and mountainous islands and fresh salt air without leaving the comfort of home. To live in the confines of a 40â™ sailboat 24/7/365 strains most duos, whoever they may be. True stories of resilience, humor, danger and challenge set within the Caribbean Sea are told through the eyes of Jim and Ellen, an unlikely pair.

Customer Reviews

With these short stories Ellen captures the essence of life aboard the cruising yacht. She writes of the comradery amongst the cruising boats, we all have so much in common and bond so quickly. The Caribbean setting for the cruising life is so rich in variety from the wealthier and tourist crowded islands of the U.S.V.I., St. Martin and St. Bart to the more quaint islands of Dominica and Grenada. The beauty is in the people as Ellen finds and the wealth is in your participation with this backdrop.

Jim and Ellen's experience is also all encompassing with emotions from robbery on the high seas and storms at anchor to quiet peacefulness of relaxation in Tyrell Bay, Carriacou. A great read for a glimpse of the wonderful life of cruising on a sailboat.

These are the real stories of Captain Jim and Ellen who left the mountains of Utah for a life aboard "Boldly Go." And so they have - gone boldly. There's more to life on their sail boat than sunsets and day sails. Way more.
