— John Gray, Author, Men are from Mars Women are from Venus, Beyond Mars and Venus

“Ken Druck is a national treasure! A magnificent man with a huge heart and a deep well of wisdom to match, he has never retreated from engaging directly - and honestly - with life’s most challenging issues. Ken explores the fears, aversions, and neuroses our culture has surrounding the process of aging. He joyfully debunks most of them, and offers us - instead - a clear path to re-envisioning our elder years as a time of great freedom, awakening, and vibrant living. He invites us to fearlessly immerse ourselves in the wisdom we have cultivated over the course of many, many decades. Our tendency to see the “senior” phase of life as a time of meaninglessness, irrelevance, and decline is unique to our modern western world. In Courageous Aging, Ken Druck assures us that the cultural paradigm we have bought into is not true | and that we really might - literally - enjoy this sacred time more than all the previous phases of our life. This is a spectacular, ground-breaking book, and I HIGHLY recommend it!”

— John Welshons, author of One Soul, One Love and Awakening from Grief

A true pioneer in the human potential movement, Dr. Ken Druck has broken new ground in the psychology of men, parent effectiveness, grief literacy and now, successful aging. A regular guest on CNN, PBS and network news, lifeline to thousands after 9-11, Newtown and Columbine, resource to millions through social media and winner of the prestigious 'Distinguished Contribution to Psychology' award, Ken Druck's new book, Courageous Aging: Your Best Years Ever Reimagined is winning recognition as one of the most important books on aging to ever be written.

My wife Jen and I recently had the pleasure of interviewing Dr. Ken Druck for our podcast and blog, Wrinkled Not Dead. Our show centers on staying relevant and facing challenges for people over 50. We recorded about 30 minutes of astonishing content. In speaking together about his latest book 'Courageous Aging' we were almost overwhelmed by his insight, knowledge, wisdom and love for life. Courageous Aging releases soon but take our advice and pre-order, get it the moment it's available. Dr. Druck kindly gifted us an early production run copy and signed it. It will be treasured in our home. If we could give this book six stars there would be no hesitation.
