The Nuremberg Trials - The Complete Proceedings Vol 9: The Case Against Goering (The Third Reich From Original Sources)

Synopsis

This volume continues the case for Reichsmarschall Herman Goering, and features his personal testimony. It also includes the testimony of Colonel Bernd von Brauchitsch, Goering's first Military Adjutant, who describes the treatment of "terror fliers", and Paul Koerner, his State Secretary, who testifies about concentration camps, the Roehm putsch, and economic exploitation. Albert Kesselring, Field-Marshal of the Luftwaffe, recounts the building up of the Luftwaffe, the bombing of Warsaw, Rotterdam and Coventry, and the treatment of Italian partisans. Kesselring himself was tried in 1947, and though found guilty and sentenced to death by firing squad, was later pardoned, partially due to the protest from influential Allied generals and leaders including Winston Churchill.

Customer Reviews

The corpulent airman could bob and weave, I'll give him that. But his tactical long-windedness is trying for any reader. Nevertheless, this is a mesmerizing and even dynamic transcript. Thanks to Mr. Carruthers for compiling these trials.

It is great!! It can be a difficult read at times but is a fantastic part of history. If anyone is interested in WW2 history I would strongly recommend it. The testimony of Hermann Goehring is very interesting. At times it is pure propaganda but still interesting. The one recommendation I would to make. If any German citizens read this review I recommenmd they read it.

Transcripts tell the true story.
