Imam Nawawi, lived in the 13th century, was a Sunni scholar of Islamic jurisprudence and hadith. In his life of 45 years, he produced many works on hadiths and jurisprudence, taught at prestigious Islamic schools. His collection of Riyad As Salihin is one of the most famous collection of hadiths, narrations from the Prophet Muhammad, that has been a fundamental book in all the Islamic world.

This is the translation to buy of this essential core text in the Islamic tradition. It consists of translations of about half of the hadiths in Imam Nawawi's original collection together with corresponding Arabic text. The Arabic print is clear and easy to make out. This translation is vastly superior to the deplorable hack-job published by Dar-us-Salam Publications, which was written in an English that is an embarrassment to read and which propagates much Wahhabi nonsense not present in the original collection. The agenda of the publishers of this translation is not paraded about in the book, but is (for the record) connected with the much more palatable Fethullah GÃ©len movement -- and they have a better right to the text than Dar-us-Salam does. The English is not perfect, but it is quite acceptable.

A great hadith book for reference and safe from fraudulent Darussalam tampering publication.

Al Hamdulillaah good to have this in my library again. May Allaah reward Imam Nawawi with good Aameen Allaahu Akbar
