Customer Reviews

Dr Williamson is Senior Lecturer in Pharmacognosy at the London School of Pharmacy, and editor of the journal "Phytotherapy Research".

This book is a must if you are like me a self taught herbalist studying all natural therapies. It is not a book for the newbie you have to have knowledge of herbs and a knowledge of the lab results on the pharmaceutical aspect. It is an excellent book herbs from a-z everything and more on identity, characteristics, medicinal uses, lab tests of the plant
