Customer Reviews

Food Editor, Scott Cherry gave a full front page review of Tout de Suite a la Microwave I and II. Subject; Pralines with a full color photo of a plate of delicious Pralines. "Pretty Pralines" "Louisiana cookbook proves popular as recipe source." "I have tried out a number of recipes for pralines, but this is the best-and the easiest." -- Tulsa World Newspaper, March 3, 1999

Tout de Suite is the French phrase for "quick", "immediate", or "right away". This cookbook, Tout de Suite a la Microwave I, has over 100 illustrations, 224 pages, a utensil chart, micro memos and helpful hints. More than 300,000 copies have been sold.

I lost my copy of this cookbook that I have had since the early 1980s. So happy to find it. Now, if I can just find Tout de Suite a la Microwave II!

As a New Orleanian, I say this cookbook is an excellent way to cut time off of the great food we love. Easy and clear recipes that will have your family and friends thinking you're a Cajun chef!

A real time saver!! The best it offers, for me, is how to prepare a roux. I misplaced my copy some time ago and was thrilled to find it available on for only a dollar. Higly recommend it.

I had this fabulous cookbook before the Hurricane Katrina hit - lost everything - finally getting around to trying to replace a few things I lost. I am thrilled to get this copy.

Book very handy, recipes I 've tried have been tasty.

This is an excellent cookbook designed for microwave cooking. The recipes are easy to make and easy to clean up after. Everything that I have made so far is delicious.

I ordered this one to replace my old one! Yes, I use it that much!! I lived in New Orleans for four years and love to fix cajun food!!

Must have for quick microwave cooking !!
