The Shark: Forgotten Files, Book 1

Synopsis

At the grisly murder scene of a teen prostitute, Virginia state trooper Riley Tatum's past roars back to haunt her. When she was a teenage runaway, she was kidnapped, drugged, and left unconscious on the streets. She has no memories of what happened, only strange recurring dreams of two men playing cards. Former FBI agent Clay Bowman, Riley's old flame, is Shield Security's newest member. He's plagued by the unsolved case of a serial killer nicknamed the Shark who murdered girls as part of a sadistic poker game. Only one girl survived. With the Shark now bent on evening that score, Clay has a chilling suspicion: Riley is the girl who escaped the Shark's deadly amusement - and she is his next prey. As the Shark gets ready to play his hand, can Riley and Clay stop him - or will this killer finally claim the one who got away?

Customer Reviews

While not a big fan of murder mysteries, I tried this book to see if the author had a different approach to a story line. She very definitely did. Enjoy.

Good story with interesting characters. The storyline is interesting with twists and turns and several sub plots just to keep the readers attention.

Gripping from page 1 to the end. Mystery, suspense and romance. This book 2 in The Forgotten Files and a stand alone.

New author to me, but bought the trilogy and am glad I did. Great story line and ending. Looking forward to book 2.

I couldn't put it down. This book is another great read and I will be looking for more books by Mary Burton.

I actually really enjoyed this book. Perfect beach read. Didn't try to be too literary, right amount of suspense, loved the card aspect. Just passed over the romance/sex part at end.

Since I love to read this is the beginning of a series by this author. Would recommend all three books. Each one is stand alone story in itself.

It was a different setting with much different characters. I suspected who it might have been but not sure until the very end. That is how I like it. Enjoy reading it. I will now start #2 in the series.
