Freelance writer Oliver Lazenby specializes in stories about adventure and the environment. He recently retired from his job as a newspaper reporter in Ellensburg to hit the road in his red station wagon and hike as much as possible. He has lived all over Washington, but currently his only permanent address is his website: oliverlazenby.wordpress.com.

Just finished reading through here and was satisfied. I was able to make quite the list with all of the suggested hikes. I like that it mentions some not so popular trails which is ideal to me, and I'm sure many others.

a good book

my son in law loved this book. he hikes around the state a lot and asked for it for christmas. It arrived quickly and was given as a gift

Some great hikes listed that aren't familiar to me. It is laid out well with great information. I highly recommend it bought for a fr and they like it so YEE HAW

It's a good book as a starter guide but there's not many hikes in here.

Good book & fast shipping.
