Customer Reviews

This book is not well done. It has a lot of music but a good deal of it is transcribed orchestral music. Also, the editing is poor. Many phrase lines, fingering, dynamics, etc are not there. I bought it for one particular piece and I would be willing to buy that separately for a better edition.

The print quality on quite a few pages makes it difficult to read some of the notes.

This product is exactly what it says it is: a collection of his greatest piano solos. It is not suitable for the beginning piano student, but it perfect for the experienced pianist who is interested in playing the works of Tschaikowsky (although this name is mis-spelled!). The book is clean and easy to read. I highly recommend it for people who are interested in this.
