A wonderful story about the life of St. Therese. Her inner strength and faith were rock solid, and this book is a testament to that! Food for the soul.

A favorite Saint's autobiography, how excellent is that!

Excellent!

This is a good book for young people. I couldn't put it down.

Who wouldn't love to read anything about St. Therese? I like that they made this study edition which explains each chapter in depth. Great reading on a great saint!

I knew what to expect because I am familiar with this autobiography. I thought that the explanatory notes were very helpful.

This is a classic that I've heard about for years and decided to make it part of my Lenten journey this year. When St. Therese writes of herself as a young person, you can sense her innocence and appreciate her candor. I have not finished the book, but what I have read has made me really want to continue reading the story of her life. Though she is a saint, her humanity is clearly present and most anyone will be able to relate to her story.

This is "Story of a Soul" with a little added punch! Thought provoking questions throughout that help one delve into their own souls journey with Christ.
