Customer Reviews

It's a great story about the love of two people that have gotten to know each other but don't know how to make it work just yet. There are just so many feels here. A great job of using the other books in this one to sum it up and answer questions we had. And even when everything happens there is still that funny side to lighten everything up

I really enjoyed this series. It's funny, charming and the pics are great. There were even some moments when I laughed out loud because I recognised myself or a friend in the behaviour of the characters. The story is maybe not the most original, but the characters are well thought through and the love story is sweet.

Great book!!

This is a really great series and pretty short. I think it ended well in this book. It does leave room for additions if the author so chooses at a later time. The characters are believable and even rarer for a manga is for the situations to be believable as well. There's no magical powers or giant robots. Just young adult and real world experiences. I think Svet is a great author for putting together such a neat and addicting series. She has a lot of potential.

Loved reading this volume when I was in middle school. Glad to have my own copy.

Came early, good quality. I love the series.

Dramacon 3 is a GREAT ending to an excellent series. Fans who enjoyed the first two volumes will not be disappointed by this one. I have to say, out of all of the manga I've read... This ending ranks up there as one of the best. It finishes off the series with a nice feeling of completion - unlike most manga endings, that leave you wondering, "What just happened?" or "That's IT???"

A fun story that combines drama and comedy into a mesmerizing tale of the ups and downs of love.
