The Art Of Public Speaking With Connect Access Card

Synopsis

For over 30 years, instructors around the world have successfully used The Art of Public Speaking to teach the development and presentation of effective speeches. Through personalized and adaptive instruction, the program helps each student think critically, build confidence and make the leap from learning the principles to mastering competent speaking in the classroom and throughout life. Connect is the only integrated learning system that empowers students by continuously adapting to deliver precisely what they need, when they need it, and how they need it, so that your class time is more engaging and effective.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Stephen E. Lucas is Professor of Communication Arts and Evjue-Bascom Professor in the Humanities at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where he has taught since 1972. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of California, Santa Barbara, and his master's and doctorate degrees from Penn State University. Professor Lucas has been recognized for his work as both a scholar and a teacher. His first book, Portents of Rebellion: Rhetoric and Revolution in Philadelphia, 1765-1776, received the Golden Anniversary Award of the National Communication Association in 1977 and was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize. His major articles include "The Schism in Rhetorical Scholarship" (1981), "The Renaissance of American Public Address: Text and Context in Rhetorical Criticism" (1988), "The Stylistic Artistry of the Declaration of Independence" (1990), and "The Rhetorical Ancestry of the Declaration of Independence" (1998), for which he received the Golden Anniversary Monograph Award of the National Communication Association. His most recent book is Words of a Century: The Top 100

American Speeches, 1900-1999 (2009). Professor Lucas has received a number of teaching awards, including the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching at the University of Wisconsin and the National Communication Association's Donald Ecroyd Award for Outstanding Teaching in Higher Education. His lecture course on "The Rhetoric of Campaigns and Revolutions" is among the most popular on campus and has twice been selected for statewide broadcast in its entirety by Wisconsin Public Radio. Professor Lucas is featured in the Educational Video Group's program on the history of American public address, and he has appeared on the History Channel's documentary on the Declaration of Independence. Professor Lucas has directed the introductory public speaking course at the University of Wisconsin-Madison since 1973. Over the years he has been responsible for numerous teaching innovations and has supervised the training of hundreds of graduate assistants. In addition to participating in public speaking workshops and colloquia at schools throughout the United States, he has served as a judge for the major national English-language public speaking competitions in China, has lectured at numerous Chinese universities, and has conducted workshops for Chinese instructors on teaching public speaking. Stephen Lucas and his wife, Patty, live in Madison, Wisconsin, and have two sons, Jeff and Ryan. His interests include travel, sports, art, and photography.

The seller sold me the instructor's version. If you plan on having it in class, don't buy from this seller! I saw the instructor's version available but did not buy it because you can't re-sell the instructor's version. They sent me the instructor's version anyway. Getting a degree is expensive enough without getting ripped off by dishonest seller. By the way, it is a violation of copyright laws to sell instructor's versions. So I'm stuck using this version and because I discovered it was the wrong version 15 days past the return date, the seller refuses to let me return it.

Standard public speaking book. Boring, but helped me pass the test.

Got a used version, which is what I asked for. I don't think it came with the access code as such, which was fine for me anyway. No marks, only a bit scuffed on the cover and some dog-eared pages but nothing very distracting at all. All of the pages seemed to be present and I passed my class with an A with this book. I paid ~$20 for this previous edition as opposed to ~$120 for a new copy of the newer edition, and you really can't beat that.

No connect access card with my purchase

I just got the book for my communications class. there was nothing for me to like or dislike about because I only read for my class. but the price was really good for the book especially compared to our bookstore prices. and it came at the expected time.

As listed so trust the seller America!

My son needed a Connect Access card for one of his college courses and we found it on for more than half the price than the school was selling it for. My son is connected to the blackboard; the product works! Very satisfied

Ordered this book because it stated it came with access card for connect and it does NOT. now I have to order the connect separately for 115.00 to have it for class. Disappointed actually.
