No planning required! Need a day away to relax, refresh, renew? Just get in your car and go! This first edition of Day Trips from the Twin Cities is your guide to hundreds of exciting things to do, see, and discover in your own backyard. With full trip-planning information and tips on where to eat, shop, and stop along the way, you can make the most of your time off and rediscover the simple pleasures of a day trip. Explore places you never knew existed, many free of charge, and most within a two-hour drive of Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minnesota. Head north any time of the year to Brainerd, where its bounty of lakes offers waterskiing and wakeboarding in the summer, and snowmobiling and ice fishing in the winter. Follow Wisconsin's Great River Road and soak up the beautiful scenery and historic villages tucked along the landscape. Get a taste of Germany in New Ulm, a city that wears its heritage proudly through its ornate buildings, historic brewery, and fun festivals.

Diane Paff says:I absolutely love this book! It is so well written. It is easy to read and understand. I love the maps in each section to help with directions. I enjoy day trips and weekend trips so this book helps a lot. It is full of great ideas and places to go. I have already been to & enjoyed some of the places she has written about and I plan to visit many more in the near future. They sound very inviting. I would definitely love to see and purchase future books done by Lisa on day trips in surrounding states especially Wisconsin. Great job!

Lisa McClintick Scores Again! Those readers who have enjoyed her past travel articles (Mpls. Trib etc.) will discover a delightful book. In "Day Trips from the Twin Cities" she strikes the perfect balance between enticing descriptions and helpful detail. I found myself drawn to her descriptions of areas I've visited - discovering "spot on" reporting. She often names places I've found to be treasures. Yet the reader is able, too, to "keep secret" some favorite restaurants, back roads, etc. often discovered only by trying her oft-referenced county roads. Her accuracy in describing locations I've visited makes me anxious to try those I've yet to enjoy. Well Done!
