Customer Reviews

Very rich book and totally above expectations. It turned out that I am learning from it more than the children.

Macha Allah. This is really easy and simple book but enough for the kids to understand about the importance of respecting parents and all. My son understood that is mother day every days

This book is well organized to introduce children to Islam. The quality of the book and pictures is not very high but the content is good. I recommend this book for convert parents wanting to teach their children about why we choose Islam as a way of life.

I am pregnant, and I love reading this to my little one in the middle of the night when he or she is dancing away in my belly. I am so excited to be able to read this in a few months.

Excellent.
