My piano students absolutely love looking at these while they wait for their lessons. I also recommend the others from the 'Fandex' series - kids love them, and even leave their iPads to check them out - big win!

Great educational product in a colorful and compact form!

The "fan" of composers has been very helpful in my piano teaching. Because I teach some of my students in my home and some in their homes, it's quite portable and easy to have with me. My students enjoy this "field guide".

I presented these to my piano students who are currently reading and studying about the masters of the piano. They were so pleased to receive them at the Spring Recital as were the parents. Sandra Palmer, NCTM

Great gift for kids.

The cards are so handy and give a reasonable overview of the composer that is helpful. The pictures are wonderful!

Great Condition, New. Perfect information for school. Thank you!

These are great educational tools for kids. I have the entire set.
