Bunny's Guide To Caring For Your Rabbit (Pets' Guides)

Synopsis

Titles in the Petsâ™ Guides series teach young readers how to care responsibly for their chosen pet. However, in a unique spin, each book is written from the point of view of one of the animals themselves, thus also allowing the books to be used to teach perspective. In this book, Bunny the Rabbit reveals how readers should go about choosing a pet rabbit, what supplies they will need, how to make a new rabbit feel at home, and how to properly care for a pet rabbit, including feeding, exercising, and keeping a rabbit hutch clean. Text in the book is accompanied by clear, labeled photographs to further reinforce key concepts.

Anita Ganeri is an award-winning author of information books for children. Educated at Cambridge University, she has written more than 300 books, including the best-selling 'Horrible Geography' series (Scholastic Children's Books) which won a 2009 Blue Peter Book Award. She writes widely on animals and the natural world. A recent title for Raintree, A Day in the Life of Rainforest Animals: Capybara, has been shortlisted for a Maryland Blue Crab Award 2012. Anita lives in the north of England with her husband, children and assorted pets. Rick Peterson uses both traditional and digital media to create images for a wide range of publishing, advertising and editorial projects - including a long list of children's titles. His work has received awards from Graphic Design USA and the Association of Educational Publishers. Rick lives in Minneapolis with his wife, two children, a cat, a gerbil, and a lovable but barky dog.

We bought this book for our 8 and 9 year old grandchildren before we gave them their bunnies. They loved the book and learned quite a bit. It was also an easy read for them.

Cute book. This doesn't go very deep into rabbit care. I bought it before we got our rabbits. My daughter who is 7 is able to read it on her own and it taught her a few things she didn't know about rabbits.

Not quite as detailed as I would have liked. A bit too general for teaching my daughter (8yrs) how to care for her pet.
